Rich,

No, not at all--what you have planned makes sense. Meetings are hard to schedule so let's go with what you have for tomorrow and go for the larger group meeting next week. Thanks, Dan

I was going to schedule a larger meeting next week after people had a little more time to review the Information Request (IR). But in the interim, I wanted to have a smaller call with the attorneys and Allison Graham regarding the IR Water responses and Allison's September 25th inspection report. If you think everybody is ready for a full meeting tomorrow, I'll reschedule it now.

Rich,

Two quick questions--

Do you have a call in number? (I will be working from home)

Have you thought about include Jerry/Justin? I know Jerry has reviewed the information request and may have some ideas.

Thanks, Dan
